

Joseph – Autism Spectrum

Joseph is a 4th grade student. He exhibits the following characteristics:

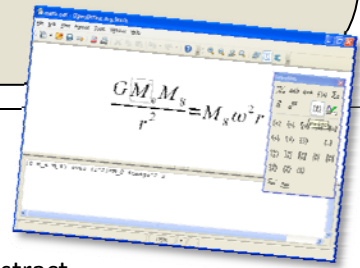

1. He enjoys playing with toys and can become obsessive regarding certain objects.
2. He is resistive to change.
3. He has some problems with writing due to fine motor inconsistencies.
4. He has difficulty with abstract reasoning. This is noted in problems with reading comprehension as well as math processes.
5. He is very good with puzzles.

Concrete

Representational

Abstract

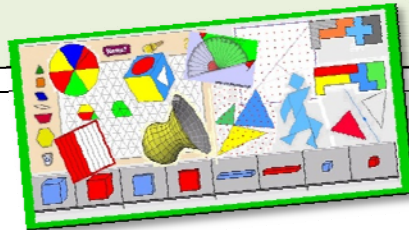

Tanya – CP

Tanya is an 8th grade student. She exhibits the following characteristics:

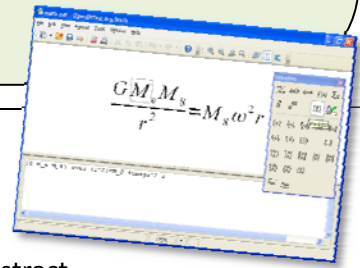

1. She exhibits limited fine motor skills and limited range of motion in her upper extremities.
2. She uses a computer with arm rests, a trackball, and an alternative keyboard.
3. She is receiving speech therapy.
4. She enjoys reading and reads on grade level.
5. She is struggling with grade level math expectations.
6. She wants to be self-sufficient and run her own business.

Concrete

Representational

Abstract

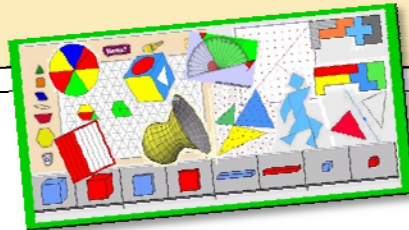

Shane – Specific Learning Disability

Shane is a 7th grade student. He exhibits the following characteristics:

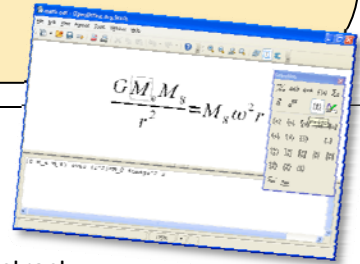

1. He has difficulty processing text and struggles with any reading material.
2. His reading and math scores are around the 3rd to 4rd grade level.
3. He has good social skills and is sensitive about looking different than his peers.
4. He enjoys sports.
5. He wants to be in the National Guard.

Concrete

Representational

Abstract